

Board of any decision by the Town of Dunn in connection with a permit application. An “aggrieved person” may challenge the decision on the grounds that the Town of Dunn incorrectly applied the standards under this Ordinance or violated sec. 93.30, Stats.

2. An “aggrieved person” under this section as defined in Sec. 93.90 (5) of Wis. Statutes means a person who applied to a political subdivision for approval of a livestock siting or expansion, a person who lives within 2 miles of the livestock facility that is proposed to be sited or expanded, or a person who owns land within 2 miles of a livestock facility that is proposed to be sited or expanded.
3. An “aggrieved person” may request review of any decision of the Livestock Facility Siting Administrator decision or action by the town board.
4. Any appeal brought under this section must be requested with 30 days of the town approval or disapproval or within 30 days after the decision on appeal before the town board committee.
5. Any appeal to the State Livestock Facility Siting Review Board shall comply with Sec. 93.90 of Wis. Statutes and administrative rules of said board.

Section 18: Severability

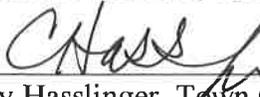

If any provision of this Ordinance or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Ordinance that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end, the provisions of this Ordinance are severable.

Section 19: Effective Date

This Ordinance is effective the day after publication.

Adopted this 10th day of September 2019, by the Town of Dunn Town Board.
